Team Composition:

Teams must field their players in order of WTN (whole number only*). The player with the best WTN must play in position 1 and the player with the lowest WTN in the lowest position. Where players have the same WTN it will be down to the discretion of the captain to decide which of them should play in the higher position. For red matches the captain must put the players in order of standard.

- 8U – Team of 4
- 9U – Team of 4
- 10U – 18U – Team of 2 (both Division 1 and Division 2). An additional 3rd player may be brought in for the doubles.

* - e.g. Player A has a WTN of 38.25, Player B has a WTN of 38.75. Player C has a WTN on 39.18. Player A or Player B may play in Position 1. Player C must play in position 3.

Group Stage to Knockout

The winner of each group will progress through to the knockout stages. At the county's discretion, we may choose to include 2nd or 3rd placed teams where appropriate.

Finals

Finals will be carried out at competitors venue in March 2023. The exact time frame allowed for the finals will be at the discretion of Surrey Tennis nearer the time.
